Arab Official To Speak At Two ESSC Assemblies

THE World Cultures Committee at East Stroudsburg State College will present Burhan W. Hammad, Acting Chief of the Research Section of the Arab States Delegation Office in New York, to special audiences on Monday and Tuesday (Nov. 5 and 6). The public is invited to hear Hammad on Monday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Room 104 of the Science Building.

Burhan W. Hammad is the Acting Chief of the Research Section of an institution representing the League of Arab States which includes Algeria, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, United Arab Republic and Yemen.

Born in Nabius, Palestine, in 1929, Hammad received his high school education at Najah National College, after which he attended the American University of Beirut for one year. He received his law degree, LL. B., in 1963 and a Certificate in Finance and Commerce in 1955, at the university of Baghdad. From 1953 to 1956 he practiced law and from 1956 to 1957 he worked in the Tourist Department, Jordanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

In 1957 he was awarded a U.S. Smith-Mundt scholarship to pursue his higher education at the Law School, Yale University. By virtue of this scholarship and a consecutive one from Yale, he received his LL. M. in International Law in 1959 and completed the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence, J.S.D. in the same field. He expects to get his degree this current academic year. Hammad attended special summer courses at Bard College, U.C.L.A. Law School and Berkeley Law School, in which he studied American history, American Constitutional Law, and international investment, respectively.

During his student period he participated in various activities sponsored by the World Community Assn., International House, Organization of Arab Students and many others. At present he is a member of both the Jordanian Bar and the American Society of International Law.

Hammad has traveled extensively in Western Europe and the Middle East and has visited Canada and forty-four states of the United States. His writings, published and unpublished, include various works in international law, especially legal problems pertinent to the Middle Eastern area, such as the Right of Passage in the Gulf of Aqaba, Nationalization of the Suez Canal, Analysis of the Armistice Agreements between Israel and the Neighboring Arab States, and the Right to Modify the Oil Concession Agreements in the Middle East.

Hammad is cognizant of the significance of the Arab world and the importance of fostering American Arab understanding and friendship. The schedule for Hammad, as released by Dr. John Appel, of East Stroudsburg State College will include an appearance before the American Association of University Women on Monday night, Nov. 5.

Vote for EXPERIENCE

EXPERIENCE of this kind works for YOU and YOUR NEIGHBORS in the State Legislature.

VAN YETTER has that experience. He is among the most respected lawmakers in the General Assembly. He is a full time representative of Monroe County.

There were 103 call votes in the 1962 Assembly session. Yetter was present and voted on ALL 103 roll calls.

These are just a few of the many important laws sponsored by YOUR Representative, Van Yetter:

The Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority (PIDA) and the Tourist Promotion Assistance Program — two programs designed to promote new industry and industrial expansion in the Pocono Mountains — the best area for business — the finest vacation region in Eastern America.

Tock's Island Dam — one of the greatest recreation areas in the Nation will be built on the Delaware River. It was made possible by Interstate Cooperative Laws introduced and fought for by Van D. Yetter.

Anti-Litter signs have been erected on all State Highways — reducing ugly waste disposal — preserving our natural, scenic beauty

Billboards have been restricted on Interstate Highways.

Voting Procedure

CLOSING THE CURTAIN—Kathleen Fehr, a clerk in the office of the Monroe County Commissioners, is shown moving the red handle to the right. This operation closes the curtain and unlocks the voting machine so the voter may register his or her vote. (Staff Photos by MacLeod)

VOTING A STRAIGHT TICKET—After the curtain has been closed and the voter wishes to vote a "straight ticket" it can be done by pulling to the left the lever marked with the name of the party of the voters choice.

"A SPLIT TICKET"—The voter has closed the curtain and has made her selection in both parties. She has done this by pushing down the lever over the candidate she wishes to vote for. After the lever has been moved down a white "X" appears above the name of the candidate voted for. When the voter has registered all his or her votes the red handle is moved to the left.

VOTE IS COMPLETED and registered when the voter moves the red handle from its position on the right to a position on the extreme left. When this is done the vote is registered, the curtain opens and the machine is locked until an election official unlocks it to enable the next person to vote.

Commissioners Meet Erupts Into Who Said What Affair

A DISPUTE over who said what and why occupied Monroe County Commissioners at their meeting yesterday.

John R. Lesoine, commission chairman, told his members, who also serve as the county board of elections, that he had received a telephone call from Stroudsburg Atty. Edwin Krawitz, in which Krawitz reported that Mrs. Kay Tarr said at a recent Republican meeting that the commissioners threw out 18 Republican absentee ballots.

Commissioners Willard Quick and Stanley Rader agreed that Mrs. Tarr and Krawitz should be contacted immediately for a clarification of the statement.

Mrs. Tarr, contacted by telephone, was unable to come to the commissioners' office. She denied, in a conversation with Lesoine, that she made the statement, but admitted saying she thought it would be proper to have Republican clerks in the commissioners' office to watch what the Democratic clerks were doing.

Krawitz was contacted by telephone and joined the meeting. He said he at no time mentioned any number of absentee votes. He said that he contacted Lesoine regarding Mrs. Tarr's statement.

Properties Declared Tax Exempt

MONROE County commissioners granted 20 property owners tax exemptions yesterday at their meeting in the court house.

The 20 properties are now owned by church groups and under present laws must be tax exempt. They are St. John's In-The-Poconos, Tobychanna Township, and the Baptist Convention property, formerly Werry's Sunnybrook, Middle Smithfield Township.

In other business, the commissioners announced that they would not meet Monday, the regular day for the meeting, but on Tuesday as they are required to be in the court house on election day.

It too includes three major bridges and an interchange to serve

Halloween March Brings Out 2,000

THE ANNUAL Halloween parade, twice postponed because of inclement weather, moved through the business districts of Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg last night with 2,000 lining the streets of the two boroughs to watch it.

The parade is sponsored by the Pocono Mountains Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assns.

Musical organizations in the line of march included the Keystone Grenadiers, drum and bugle corps of Thomas P. Lambert Post 2540, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and George N. Kemp Post, 346, American Legion, and bands of East Stroudsburg Area Joint and Stroud Union High Schools.

Political floats, urging support for individual candidates or for party loyalty, were among the highlights of the parade. They were aimed at influencing voters in next Tuesday's general election.

Theme of the parade was "Get Out the Vote." Prizes awarded for persons or organizations coming closest to the theme included: Float, Four Freedoms — Get Out the Vote; group, Digger O'Tool group, Explorer Post 88, first; Voting Booth and voters group of Stroudsburg, second; individual, Mary Shaffer, sandwich board, "I'm 105, But Still Young Enough To Vote," first; Sally Wonder, "Wake Up and Vote," second.

Other floats awarded prizes included Blue Ridge Ski Club and the covered wagon float pulled by ponies.

Other winners were Virginia LaBar, Dorothy Lee, Allan Lee, Mrs. Anna Panza, Marva Lee Neal, Peggy Saxton, Mary Lou Cramer, Bryan Lee, Roberta Fenner, Brenda Fenner.

Group awards went to Maidenform Girdles, This Is Our Baby Group, the Two Cooks, the Belvedere Dragon, Fortune Tellers and Organ Grinder and Monkey.

Individual awards were $1 to $5, while those for floats were from $15 to $35.

Howard Coslett was chairman while judges were Fran Shinn, Arthur Widmer and Jeannette Batory.

Snyder Charges Yetter Padded State Expenses

GERALD A. Snyder, Republican candidate for Monroe County's seat in the General Assembly, last night charged that his opponent, incumbent Democrat Van D. Yetter, Jr., padded his mileage expense account for a period of five months during the 1961 Assembly session.

Speaking before a meeting of the Monroe County Young Republican Club, Snyder said:

"In 1960, my opponent was given a mileage expense questionnaire by the clerk of the Assembly with instructions to state the number of round trip miles from Stroudsburg to Harrisburg for which he would receive 10 cents per mile, one trip per week, while the assembly was in session.

"He was further instructed to use the nearest mail route to compute the mileage. The nearest mail route at that time and at present is 266 miles round trip via Allentown. Mr. Yetter put down the figure of 528 miles which is almost twice the distance he had to travel per week.

"Each week for a period of 20 weeks he overcharged the Commonwealth $26.20 for a total of $524 over the five-month period.

"This kind of greed is not only outright dishonest, but a violation of the public trust. Mr. Yetter is morally obligated to repay the $524 to the taxpayer."

Snyder concluded that he would be happy to discuss this charge in Yetter's presence any time "he is willing to meet the truth head on."

Where Do We Go From Here!

Where do we go from here?

For the past eight years Monroe County has enjoyed its greatest resurgence in history. Even since the administration of Governor George Leader got underway the Poconos with its Wayne and Pike and Monroe tentacles has grown with programs initiated in Harrisburg under the guidance of Leader and later steam-rolled under the banner of Gov. David L. Lawrence.

New highways, flood control, increased promotion for Pocono resorts, constant forwardness on the Tocks Island brainchild, glistening state parks and other projects has taken Monroe County out of the woods and placed it among the most talked about areas in the commonwealth.

Calling a spade a spade, it was Democratic rule which jettisoned the hitherto unnoticed region into a national byword through the coast-to-coast Keystone Shortway (Route 89) and the phenomenal Tocks engineering proposal.

We've had our share of aid from state and national sources before. For example, Republican Governor Gifford Pinchot took us out of the mud, so to speak. But this was minute compared to the millions of dollars that has been poured into the Poconos during the regimes of Leader and Lawrence.

If you take into consideration the size of Monroe and its small Pocono territories that stretch into Carbon, Wayne and Pike counties you wonder why the large allocations were made for what appears such an insignificant area.

It took leadership on the local level, county shelf, and state ceiling to see what great possibilities the Poconos had to offer. And it took the Democratic leadership with some GOP acquiescence to mold the many minds into one and provide the necessary shove toward the ultimate goals.

The Democrats haven't been unkind to Monroe nor the Poconos the past eight years. In fact they have been mighty nice to the terrain that boasts of only 40,000 inhabitants.

For instance, during the four years of the Leader administration, Monroe County received a total of $14,414,484 for new road construction, some of which were fully paid by state funds, and others by a 50-50 or 90-10 percent arrangement with the Federal government. During three years of the Lawrence administration, $25,587,006 has been spent, and nearly a million dollars in contracts will be let before the end of Lawrence's term.

Total for the two administrations amounts to $40,001,440.

We are grateful for these considerations, and the people of the Pocono Mountains should be grateful for them.

However, that is in the past. What about tomorrow? We have two men seeking the leadership of the commonwealth. One is Richardson Dilworth, a hard nose Democrat who often bites off more than he can chew, but has the courage to masticate the problem, and still come out asking for more.

On the other side of the fence is William Scranton, a suave, clear-thinking Republican who has been indoctrinated his entire lifetime under the GOP symbol, it's inner workings—good and bad. But he does offer a new and fresher approach to the otherwise once - strid grand old party of the GOP.

Dilworth is hard-headed to say the least. Scranton is a novice with the political background that only a Scranton family could offer Republican circles the past 30 years.

What will the citizens of the Poconos gain by voting for Dilworth for governor? That's a good question. We, ourselves, would like to know the answer to this.

Would it be better to cast your ballot for Scranton for governor? Again, we honestly say we do not know the solution to this either.

The Poconos' voters will have to weigh the good the Democrats did for the region the past eight years and hope Dilworth will carry the ball in the same manner as his predecessors, Leader and Lawrence; OR cast their ballots for Scranton with the hope that the Lackawanna County resident will peek over the mountain and view the great prospects his opposition took the time to evaluate and build up during the last eight years.

That's the way we see it. You have five days to decide.

The Pennsylvania Story

Back Home For The Voters

By Mason Denison
Harrisburg — Reporter's Notebook:

Back To The Hustings — It's back to home counties and local precincts for the thousands of taxpayer-supported state payrollers who normally populate Pennsylvania's Capitol Hill — in contemplation of Tuesday's upcoming gubernatorial election.

While the "big payoff" (or retribution) day of November 5 is some five days away for the horde of 75,000-odd Democratic state payrollers, the fact still remains that today is the day for the beginning of the great exodus for a goodly number of Democratic habitués of Capitol Hill.

Those residing more than 100 miles from Harrisburg enjoy two days away from their sleeping chairs; those under this mileage (theoretically) will accrue only one day's vacation — election day itself. . . . By and large it is the 100-milers who packed up their duels and headed for home today, although (selected) others under the 100-mile mark are also departing. . . . The purpose (obviously) turn-to for all assistance possible on the local campaign front. Paradox: It was Pennsylvania

Democrats who made great hay over absentee voting legislation, calling for and pumping through legislation during the Democratic Leader Administration that would permit voters to vote in absentia "because their duties, occupation or business require them to be elsewhere." . . . Democrats have never put it into effect for their own state employees — the two-day election vacation still stands!

Chuckles in GOP-Land — Republican wags around GOP headquarters here (along with many others throughout the state) are chuckling over the obvious nettles filling the air over the head of Democratic U. S. senatorial candidate Joseph Sill Clark as a result of his jousts and political jockeying with his Republican counterpart, senatorial aspirant James Van Zandt.

Joe Clark hadn't quite recovered from his amazement, mortification and outraged embarrassment of a few weeks ago when as he was all prepared to address Van Zandt's empty chair in a Pittsburgh television station — who should show up but Van Zandt himself to apparently steal the show and on Democratic-paid air time at that!

On top of this at a regional briefing of members of Congress in New York City last week, who should be the first after the briefing to pass the word along to newsmen that the Cuban naval blockade had stopped its first ship? . . . None other than Van Zandt, who was quoted as the source by press wire services across the nation.

Complained outlandish Joseph Sill Clark this week: "I don't charge him with breaking security, but it certainly was in bad taste. It was just another example of my opponent not knowing when to keep his big trap shut." Soothed reacting GOP kingpins: "Unquestionably it would have been a different story had Joe Clark gotten his lick in first!"

End Of The Hoopla — Both Democratic and Republican statewide campaign headquarters here already are assuming an "after-the-shambles" look as the high pitch of activity sinks back toward normal. . . . To all intents and purposes the campaigning is over and done with insofar as statewide headquarters are concerned.

Work at such focal points always must be on a schedule of a day or two in advance — and the point now has been virtually reached where there no longer is any "advance" on the horizon. . . . As far as the candidates themselves are concerned, it's an entirely different matter. . . . It's a dog-eat-dog affair right up to the last moment with neither gubernatorial candidate scheduling anything approaching a breather or pre-election taper-off.

(Both Democratic hopeful Richardson Dilworth and his Republican gubernatorial opponent William W. Scranton have maintained a brutal schedule throughout this closing week.)

MOTHER NATURE'S REVERENT HOUSEHOLD

How gold upon the mountains is the Autumn — The season that is wealthiest of all — With evergreens in tall and state-ly columns, Protective, as the spent leaves dance and fall.

The warnings of the woodland call attention, The year is growing old and nature bows; But Oh, so many miracles to mention, That birds continue singing even now.

The wild geese form a specter in the moonlight, But ere long we will look for their return And sweep again the hearthstone for the sunlight Will spread its warmth where winter logs did burn.

Where barley leaves are baked in earthen kettles, And luscious purple grapes the wine press fill, Ah, this could be the place for folks to "settle" The problems of the world and "peace be still".

From the book "For This Very Day", by Helen Randel Kistler.

While the Ringling Brothers Circus was packing Madison Square Garden in New York, the bartender of a rathskeller across the Avenue swears an elephant lumbered in one day and demanded a triple vodka on the rocks. "And don't look so surprised," the elephant added when the bartender gasped. "The drink won't hurt me. I'm not doing the high wire routine today."

Al Bernie, one of the best of the night club entertainers, has played tonight stands in one lush spot in New York nine times in the past three years. "The boss tells me," explains Bernie, "that he'll keep bringing me back till I get it right." Bernie estimates that if he had a quarter for every person who's driving an expensive sports car who can't afford the next payment, he'd have enough money to afford the next payment on his own expensive sports car.

Bernie also tells of a fat friend who went to his doctor to see if he should diet. The doctor checked him against the weight-height chart and told him, "Your weight is O.K. as is; you'll just have to get a little taller."

The Allen-Scott Report

Three Russian Subs Arrive In Cuba

Washington — Three Russian submarines, detected, photographed and tracked in the Atlantic for eight days by the U.S. Navy, have arrived in Cuba unhindered and without incident. They are the first Russian men-of-war to go through the "quarantine" patrol since it was set up on October 24.

These Red submarines, including one capable of firing 450-mile missiles, were allowed through the blockade a few hours after President Kennedy lifted his quarantine during the visit to Cuba of Acting UN Secretary-General U Thant.

This presidential decision was made with the full knowledge that the three Soviet submarines were approaching the naval ring drawn around Cuba. Twice when the subs surfaced, naval units photographed them. One photo shows the subs being refueled by a Soviet submarine tender.

Hourly reports on the location and course of these subs were forwarded to the White House by Admiral George Anderson, Chief of Naval Operations. Kept under constant surveillance, the Soviet ships could have been sunk at any time.

That order never came. Instead, the presidential directive temporarily lifting the "selective" quarantine was issued.

The Russian submarines, transporting a number of high-ranking military and construction officers, docked near Banes, Cuba, where the Soviet is building a large "naval fishing" base.

These three subs were part of a squadron that this column two days ago revealed were en route to Cuba despite Premier Khrushchev's announced claim that all Russian ships had been diverted from the island. Prior to that announcement, the underwater squadron was proceeding toward Cuba at 14 knots. After Khrushchev's statement the squadron's speed was reduced to 9 knots.

Subsequently, the squadron split up with the three subs continuing to Banes for the purpose of debarking the high-ranking military and construction officers.

Floating Missile Bases—The Banes installation, and another being constructed on the Isle of Pines, will give the Russians their first submarine bases in the Western Hemisphere.

One Intelligence estimate strongly implies that these two Cuban bases will be used by Soviet nuclear and missile-firing submarines for repairs, refueling, ammunition depots and rest havens for crews.

The existence of these naval bases is one of the reasons the President Kennedy to invade and Joints Chiefs of Staff urged occupy Cuba. They contended that as long as Russia is permitted to retain naval bases in Cuba, the U.S. will be in grave danger from undersea missile attacks in the Caribbean area.

The military leaders also held that these naval installations presented a serious threat to Latin American nations. Submarines operating from these bases can be used to export Communist-trained guerrillas throughout those countries.

One guerrilla training school is being run by Algerian Communists on the Isle of Pines.

As reported in this column on October 22, the Russians are steadily expanding their submarine fleet in the Atlantic. During recent naval maneuvers, the Russian used more than 75 submarines, 31 of them capable of firing missiles.

Two of the Soviet submarines were detected making a Pacific-to-Atlantic crossing over the North Pole route. And a nuclear Russian submarine was tracked less than 90 miles from Boston.

Inside You And Yours

Help For Bursitis

By Burton H. Fern, M.D.
Every time you move your arm, pain shoots across the top of your shoulder.

You have bursitis — painful inflammation in a tiny lubricating sac above the joint. A lubricating sac — or bursa — cushions most bony points. Infection, irritation and continual wear and tear can all bring on this inflammation.

Bursitis may be called housemaid's knee (in front of the kneecap), clergyman's knee (below the kneecap) or tailor's bottom (deep in the seat). But it usually strikes the shoulder and mimics arthritis.

Some Symptoms
Pain shoots across your shoulder, along your arm and sometimes down into the chest. You hold your arm stiffly at your side. Raw nerve endings scream at the slightest jar.

Bursitis usually fades in a week or so. The tense swelling bursts and drains. But sometimes it smolders for months or years. Shrinkage scars and chunks of calcium fill the once-smooth bursa, and your shoulder grates when it moves.

At first, ease the load on your shoulder. Wear a sling to support your arm when you stand; rest it on pillows when you sit.

Soothing Treatment
Aspirins and hot packs should soothe most pain. If not, try numbing ice packs.

Your doctor can prescribe stronger pain-relievers and special muscle-relaxing pills. He may inject cortisone — medicine and long-acting Novocain (R) into that tender bursa to melt inflammation and numb pain.

Limber Up!
When bursitis smolders for months, you'll have to limber up your shoulder joint. Otherwise, muscles weaken and wither and the joint freezes stiff.

Hold onto a chair and swing that dangling arm in small — then larger — circles 10 or 20 times every few hours. You'll gradually work out all stiffness.

Your arm may be going in circles, but you're straight on the road to recovery!

Dr. Fern's mailbox is wide open for letters from readers. While he cannot undertake to answer individual letters, he will use readers' questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Fern in care of this newspaper.

It's A Strange Philosophy

DEAR ABBY: My husband asks my advice about money matters, then he does as he pleases and we end up in a financial mess. I am ashamed to admit that we have been married 23 years and don't own a thing. He spends every quarter before he makes it and buys things on time. I keep telling him we need security for our old age and he says, "Let the state bury us." I even tried to get him to start a little savings account and he says that's the trouble with our economy today, everyone is saving, which causes a depression. Money should be kept in circulation at all times. I'm too old to work and he's too sweet to leave. Now what?

think the reason most people sit down at a cluttered table before it is cleared off, is so they can get to the tip before the waitress does.

Gene Brown About Town

A delegation from the home state of a certain politician paid a visit to his country home. The politician, with sleeves rolled up and wearing dungarees greeted them. "Ah, gentlemen," he said mopping his brow. "I'm delighted to see you, but I'm very busy putting my hay in the barn. Come down there and we'll talk things over while I work." When they reached the barn, there was no hay waiting to be thrown into the mow. "Henry," shouted the politico to his hired hand in the loft. "Where's that hay?" "I'm sorry, sir," admitted Henry, "but I ain't had time to throw it back since you forked it up for yesterday's delegation."

Wilmer Grant, who lived in a hotel, noticed one day that the contents of a bottle of his fine bourbon were dropping at a rapid rate. So he made a tiny pencil mark on the label opposite the current level. Returning to his room that night, he found a note from the chambermaid: "Please don't put a pencil mark on the bottle, because I don't want to put water in such good whiskey."

George Sokolsky

Fidel Castro

The Cuban Affair cannot be regarded as closed as long as Fidel Castro remains at the head of the Cuban state. He is a Communist by his own declaration. As far back as 1948, Fidel Castro was involved in a Communist uprising in Bogota, Colombia. It was called the Bogotazo. Fidel Castro, with two Cuban students, were ordered to leave the country by an airplane furnished by the Cuban Embassy.

The Secretary of the Bogota Conference of 1948 was Roy Rubottom who was First Secretary of the American Embassy in Bogota. His associate in Bogota from 1947-1949 was William W. Land. It was this team of Rubottom and Land who made it possible for Castro to seize power in Cuba.

Of course, it is not possible to pin-point the final responsibility for a national error; nevertheless, it is an amazing coincidence that these two men emerged as sponsors for Castro. It is even more surprising that even after the publication of the Eastland reports, these men remain in public service.

President Kennedy has inheri-ed, as every President must, a great many errors of judgement and of act which may lead to entanglements that may be of greater or lesser consequence. Ours is a continuous government and the day a President takes over, all policies and actions of the United States, not from the day he takes over but from the establishment of our government, become his responsibility. He may in a four or eight year period make a greater or lesser alteration, but he cannot change the course of events.

For instance, our basic difficulties today grow out of the Teheran and Yalta Conferences in the Roosevelt Administration, out of the Potsdam Conference in the Truman Administration and out of modifications of the Monroe Doctrine which began in the Hoover Administration, were intensified in the Roosevelt, Truman, and Eisenhower Administrations.

This was President Kennedy's inheritance. In addition he was faced by CIA activities which resulted in the Bay of Pigs fiasco.

Our people forget the inevitable slow process of change and assume that such an arrangement as "the Kennedy Administration" can function differently from "the Eisenhower Administration" overnight.

It takes almost the first half of the first term of a President to make himself master of the enormous bureaucracy for which he is responsible to the American people.

When President Kennedy took office, the Cuban situation was fully developed with Castro, a Soviet agent, in charge. His task was to determine if he would reassert the Monroe Doctrine, invade Cuba, get rid of Castro and risk a Korean-type war. He chose forbearance in the hope of being able to concentrate on Berlin and to recapture the initiative in the American continents.

It was a difficult political maneuver and ran counter to public opinion which cried out for immediate action, particularly as it became clearer that Castro was a Soviet puppet.

President Kennedy withstood the pressure of public opinion until the situation was just right for an immediate rather than a general purpose. The Sino-Indian War undoubtedly played some part in that decision.

The danger of having atomic missiles in Cuba also affected the situation. The country was unanimously in support of the President. The Republicans were even more insistent that the Democrats that there had to be action. Only a few "accommodationists" believed that nothing could be done.

The one flaw in the President's action was to give the impression that he had promised not to invade Cuba. Actually that could not be promised to Khrushchev because Castro still is in Cuba and Castro remains a propagandistic if not a military menace. He can still upset the balance in other Latin-American countries. He is a peril to the Western World. Castro must go. Sooner or later the President will have to face that. The appointment of John J. McCloy, George W. Ball, and Roswell L. Gilpatrick to handle the crisis is most fortunate.

These are solid citizens, excellent negotiators and sound of judgement. No man has had more experience in handling difficult negotiations than McCloy and he is not likely to be tricked

For fifteen consecutive terms, Congressman Francis E. Walter has served his district and his nation with a dedication that has been matched by few since the birth of the United States. He has announced his willingness to serve another term in this important post, in order that some of the vitally important work that has begun may be completed, and to use his vast knowledge to guide our nation in the trying days that are bound to lie ahead.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 87th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Mr. Walter's Choice

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

HON. DANIEL J. FLOOD OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, February 8, 1962

MR. FLOOD. Mr. Speaker, everyone knows my feelings toward "TAD" Walter, a truly great American whom I consider one of my closest friends. Every Member of this House, I am sure, was just as elated as I was with Mr. Walter's announcement 2 weeks ago that he would seek reelection to this great body. From the daily press have come some of the finest tributes any man could ever dream to have said about him. On of these editorials recently appeared in the Omaha World-Herald. Under unanimous consent, I insert it in the Record as follows:

MR. WALTER'S CHOICE

"A fearsomely able man."

"Ability and hard work make him a hard man to dislodge."

Thus does the Louisville Courier-Journal pay grudging tribute to one of the powerful men in the House of Representatives, a man who aside from J. Edgar Hoover is perhaps the country's most effective battler against subversive activities.

We refer to Representative FRANCIS E. WALTER, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, coauthor of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, a man whose integrity and sense of proportion have kept the HUAC on the track despite the unrelenting enmity of the left and the sometimes embarrassing embrace of crackpot elements.

The immediate news about MR. WALTER is that rather than retire, as planned, he will run for a 16th term. We doubt that any other man in public life has taken such unrelenting abuse as has been heaped on MR. WALTER, or that anyone is more deserving of honorable retirement at 67, which is a relatively early retirement age for a Congressman.

But MR. WALTER tells of "widespread insistence" that he continue. That insistence reportedly is strong in his Pennsylvania district, where he is believed to be a shoo-in, and certainly all who are concerned about the future of the Un-American Activities Committee will be happy to learn of his decision.

MR. WALTER personifies the HUAC. The other members — Representatives MOULDER, DOYLE, WILLIS, TUCK, SCHERER, JOHANSEN, BRUCE, and SCHADEBERG — may be estimable Congressmen, but their names do not carry the authority and prestige which FRANCIS WALTER'S does. Without him as its chairman, the HUAC would be a much less effective body.

These times call for the knowledge and hard-headedness which MR. WALTER applies to matters of public policy.

The concern over communism felt by millions of Americans, the bland disregard of the internal Communist menace on the part of some officials, the crackpotism and criminal violence that sometimes flare up, create circumstances which can become explosive.

Under such conditions, the authority and good sense of a FRANCIS WALTER are needed by America. We are pleased by his decision to run again, and we trust that his constituents will send him back to continue his dedicated service to the Nation.

Just Between Us — —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Children shouldn't be surprised if an unexpected note of firmness is sounded at the dinner table tonight about sitting at the table until everybody is finished eating. Three nights of suppers scrambled by expectations of the Halloween parade and two cancellations there-of is about all any mother can take at once.

However, the weather was worth waiting for with a new moon that looked as if it had been clipped from a Halloween poster and pasted up there as a back-drop. I missed the parade itself since it coincided with the Dutch Treat Club dinner, but as long as I had to miss it I was properly grateful that I didn't have to follow it, as has happened all too often in the past.

The Thruway—now designated with new red-white and blue signs reading Interstate 80—is a lifesaver if you have to get from one town to another during parade time.

Dutch Treat speaker Ralph Smith is young—and a free lance writer which in itself is regard with awe. Writing without a deadline would be like cleaning the house when you aren't expecting company or cooking a full course meal when you don't know whether anybody will be home for dinner. That takes a lot of self-discipline.

His talk was devoted to frauds on the family pocketbook. Since it was a rather sophisticated audience most of them probably have seen through many of the most obvious frauds and schemes but his talk probably hit everybody somewhere or other.

At any rate I saw an exchange of somewhat sheepish glances when he got on people who take vitamins without a doctor's prescription or men who tinker with home appliances thus voiding any guarantee they might have had.

However, to me the most shocking thing was to have Gil Dunning wish everybody a Merry Christmas. It was a logical thing since the club won't be meeting again until January—but it's enough to scare the daylight out of those of us who haven't put the lawn furniture away yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard Govett (Duncan and Asher)

Govett-Predmore Wedding Held In Kemble Church

Miss Carolyn Ann Predmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Predmore, of 107 West Barber Ave., Woodbury, N. J., was married on Oct. 13 in the Kemble Methodist Church, to Robert Howard Govett. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Arvilla Predmore, of Minisink Hills, and of C. Slocum, and great granddaughter of Mrs. Evan Hartman, of Stroudsburg.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Govett, 44 South Broadway, Pitman, N. J.

Dr. Neal Raver officiated at the 3 o'clock ceremony. George Decker, of Philadelphia, was organist and Doris Hastings, Woodbury, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de sole with a deep neckline and three-quarter sleeves. The lace bodice was embroidered with pearls and crystals. A removable train completed the bell skirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl and crystal crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompon chrysanthemums with white orchid center.

Mrs. William Ario, of Almonesson, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Audrey Pescator, of Rummedale, and Miss Rita Predmore, sister of the bride. They wore similar floor-length gowns of orchid iridescent taffeta with a tulle panel back. A crown of pearls held short veils and they carried cascade bouquets of orchid chrysanthemums.

Lee Wilkerson was best man. Ushers were Richard Mangana and Donald Emery, all of Pitman. The bride's mother wore a sheath dress in pink silk organza with a white feather hat and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a sapphire sheath with matching accessories. Both wore white cymbidium orchids.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Colonial Manor American Legion. After a wedding trip to the New England States, Mr. and Mrs. Govett will reside at 336 Roosevelt Ave., Pitman.

Guests from this area attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyon and daughter, Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kintner and daughter, Diane; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Predmore, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Strunk and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lyon.

Scout Troop Has Pottery Plant Tour

Mt. Pocono — Girl Scout Troop 357 visited the Holly Ross Pottery Plant on Saturday accompanied by their leaders.

They were shown the making of pottery in each stage of the process beginning with silicone, flint and clay to the final step of glazing and decoration. It takes from 28 to 36 hours to complete a piece of china.

Taking the trip were Carol Rice, Carol Snyder, Mary Salak, Kale Miller, Jean Zimmerman, Patricia Chopko, Janet Davis, Patricia Blume and Cathy Kutudis. Their leader, Mrs. Richard Leles and assistants, Mrs. John Zimmerman and Mrs. Michael Chopko, accompanied them.

At their meeting, the troop members decided to work for a child care or player badge. Mrs. Bertis Paulis is again an assistant leader.

Two Parties For Cathy Dunlap On 7th Birthday

Barrett—A ghost, a witch, skeleton, fairy princess and gypsy were among the guests at a birthday party held recently. All were part of the group of children, who came in costume to help celebrate the seventh birthday of Cathy Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Dunlap, of Mountainhome.

Halloween decorations and favors and several games were enjoyed by the children, along with the cake, ice cream and punch. Prize winners were: Janet Turner, Meredith Montgomery, Terri Prizer, Nancy LaBar and Jacqueline Turner.

In addition to the above, the following children were present: Cynthia Bowman, Beth Ann Bowman, Virginia Kochera, Elizabeth Wilson, Dorothy Brutzman, Merilee Gravel and Cindy Lange.

Invited but unable to attend were Loralee Seese and Pamela Serfass.

Cathy was honored with a second party later in the week where guests included aunts, uncles, cousins and grandparents.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Dunlap, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Dunlap, Mrs. Paul Reisenwitz and Paula, and Mrs. Sally Jumper and Leslie Ann, all of Cresco, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Reisenwitz, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John Reisenwitz and Tim and Chris, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunlap and the guest of honor, all of Mountainhome.

Unable to attend included: Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt, Jr., and Ronald, Paul Reisenwitz and David and Mark, all of Cresco.

Cathy is a second grade student in the Barrett Elementary Center, Cresco. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Reisenwitz, Sr., Mountainhome, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Dunlap, Jr., Cresco, and great granddaughter of Arthur L. Dunlap, Sr., of Pocono Pines.

The nomadic lady is likely to be in Nassau one day and Nome the next, so Reig's seamstresses stitched up some cool silk dresses, warmed by vivid color or a mesh tweed coat that slips over it.

Election Day Dinner

Newfoundland — The annual chicken and biscuit Election Day dinner will begin at noon on November 6 at the Moravian Church, and will continue until all are served. The Moravian Ladies Aid is in charge.

No section of our store makes me feel so inadequate and at a loss for words as does our Lingerie department... and I can tell you right now that if I had several hundred dollars to spend this moment at Wyckoff's (and don't I wish I did!) most of it would go right into the cash register there.

As much as I love jewelry... and perfumes... and pretty handbags... and household accessories, I love pretty slips, nighties, and dusters even more. Right now, I am under the spell of the new Evelyn Pearson robes that have arrived by the carload to tempt the pre-holiday shopper. I haven't the remotest idea who Evelyn Pearson may be, or even if she exists except as a label on some of the most luscious intimate garments a woman could own... but maybe I'll try to find out. Maybe I should try and pin her down for an interview. Whether Evelyn Pearson is man or woman... blonde or brunette... short and plump, or tall and slender... he or she is MY kind of person: a person who understands that even average, working people can crave beauty; that even women with plain faces and ordinary figures can wish to feel glamorous in languorous moments, and that living on a budget need not deprive the realization of these dreams.

Probably the most logical choice for the very young woman would be our Evelyn Pearson robe of white nylon quilting in cut-away style, completely "framed" by dainty white nylon lace. Light blue satin is used tastefully in a thin line of piping around collar edge and at other focal points. A crushed rose of the same satin covers the top button. In a size range of 8 to 18, this is very yuene fille... very bridal... and priced at just 15.00.

The perfect choice for a woman past the trousseau stage, who still likes elegance in large doses, is the Cloud Pouff 'n Orchid robe in sizes Petite, Small, and Medium at 23.00. This comes in Gold Mist and Azure. Strangely enough, as much as I love blue, my choice is the Gold Mist—a color that can be matched perfectly, I've observed, with slips, panties, and nighties by Vanity Fair in a color that manufacturer calls Blonde.

Cloud Pouff is miraculously soft and appealing... just right for the moments in which you'd like to convey that facet of your personality to others. It is 100% acrylic on a backing of 100% cotton, and is lined with acetate and rayon. The "Orchid" part of its name derives from a rather large spray of orchids applied in satin at one side.

As for the blonde Vanity Fair items I mentioned, one might add that the slip, lavish with lace, is 8.95; panties, 2.50. Other Vanity Fair colors are Silver Lining (a wonderful, soft gray), Poppy Red, Honey Beige, Heaven Blue, and Black. Still others are on order, in a variety of styles.

The same blonde shade, called Sun Gold, is basic in Evelyn Pearson's dazzling fleece duster called Lightning Stripe. This robe reminds me of Joseph's coat of many colors... it has everything, and I say this in the fullest sense of the phrase. This duster also comes in Star Blue with eye-blinding stripes, the colors of which are blended in the fluffy yarn pom poms that terminate the neckline tie. Available in sizes 8 to 18 at 15.00, I'm sure this would be toasty warm and cuddlesome.

As I said before, whatever or whoever Evelyn Pearson is, there isn't a label anywhere more representative of "things that are nice, highly reasoned with spice." Let's face it... everywoman likes a dash of "sin-ammon!"

Action Is Filed To Help Maps Property Distribution

MRS. JULIA C. H. Wohlbach yesterday filed an equity action in Monroe County Court designed to prevent distribution of the property of Edward H. Maps and his murdered wife, Christine, Mrs. Wohlbach's daughter.

Mrs. Wohlbach, acting as administratrix of her daughter's estate, filed the action through Atty. Harry S. Lee, in the office of N. Henry Fenner, prothonotary and clerk of courts.

Named as defendants are Maps; Claude Blakowski, Scranton attorney acting for five insurance companies and the firms themselves. They are New Hampshire Fire Insurance Co., Niagara Fire Insurance Co., Globe Indemnity Co., National Union Fire Insurance Co. of Pittsburgh and Aetna Casualty and Surety Co.

Mrs. Wohlbach asks that the couple's home at 510 Sarah St., Stroudsburg, and personal property of Maps be sequestered by the court and held in abeyance until such time as the issue of unlawful death be determined.

Maps has not been seen since the night of Jan. 21 when fire broke out in the family's home. His wife died in Monroe County General Hospital of head injuries the following morning. The couple's four-month-old daughter, Julia Louise, died in the house of smoke inhalation.

Maps has been charged with murder and arson, in addition to a federal warrant charging him with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution. He is on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals. The arson charge stems from 10 fires which authorities say he set in the building to conceal his wife's murder.

Mrs. Wohlbach's petition also asks that Blakowski, as agent for the defendant insurance companies, be enjoined from proceeding further with an assumed action to enforce liability against the estate of Mrs. Maps on a bond accompanying the mortgage on the Sarah St. property.

Blakowski got possession of the property through a sheriff's sale resulting from a mortgage foreclosure. He has joined Mrs. Wohlbach in a petition to fix the fair value of the estate and is seeking to assess a deficiency judgment against the estate resulting from the mortgage foreclosure.

Mrs. Wohlbach has asked the court to frame an issue setting forth the scope of liability between the plaintiff and the defendants, determine the ownership of the real estate and set aside the mortgage foreclosure on the basis of "fraud, unjust enrichment and failure to join the plaintiff in said action."

Four Deeds Filed At Court House

Keystoneians Seen Healthier

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Lawrence said Thursday Keystoneians are much healthier now because state government has placed great accent on what he called professional quality in health programming.

The Daily Record, The Stroudsburgs, Pa. — Friday, Nov. 2, 1962

Speaking at the opening of the country's first Child Health Fair at St. Christopher's Hospital, the governor asserted: "We have made tremendous progress on a variety of fronts in public life. In large part this is because of genuine nonpartisanship in the administration of public health affairs."

DeNike Article Published

HOWARD DeNike, associate professor health and physical education, East Stroudsburg State College, recently had a article published in Safety Education.

Safety Education is a magazine for school administrators, driver education teachers, and student enrolled in the course.

DeNike's article, entitled, "Why Driver Education?" is the result of study and research of 33 studies. It shows why the course is necessary in high schools and why it should be continued to be taught in the high school.

'ACADEMIC' MORALS
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Fuller insights into moral issues need to be taught in the college curriculum, says William W. Jellima, a University of Michigan professor. He says:

"An increasingly technological age has brought each man closer to the rest of the world and confronted him with moral issues . . . of great magnitude. At the same time, society no longer supports and transmits a generally agreed upon system of values."

This, he says, leads to confusion, anxiety and "moral paralysis," a problem which higher education should attempt to cope with by giving students greater moral perception for handling decisions they face.

In the afternoon James T. Hall, extension farm management specialist, will stress "Economics of Various Storage and Feeding Programs," and George H. Berggren, extension agronomist, will highlight "Weed Control in Forage Seedling Establishment and Established Stands."

Richard S. Adams, extension dairy nutrition specialist, will conclude the day's program with tips on "Facing the Forage Shortage."

Entries for the hay show will close at the Wysox Grange Hall at 10 a.m., Nov. 2. However, exhibitors are urged to have their entries at the Grange Hall one day earlier if possible. An exhibit consists of a bale section eight inches thick, or an equivalent amount if cut from hay in the mow. There are separate sections for both field cured and heat cured hay with 12 classes in each section.

The conference will start at 10:30, Nov. 2, and is open to all interested persons.

Participation in the competitive hay show is limited to farmers in 14 Northeastern Pennsylvania counties. Entry blanks for the hay show and the complete conference programs are available at the county agent's office.

Creek Water Helps Snuff Area Fire

PANTHER — "Water pumped from a nearby creek saved our necks," Greene-Dreher firemen said yesterday of a fire which caused extensive damage to a house on the old Will Meyers property in German Valley, east of Panther, Wednesday morning.

The blaze was discovered by a passerby about 1:30 a.m. Flames were shooting through the roof of a one and one-half story addition to the house and part of the ceiling had already fallen in when the fire was first noticed.

All three trucks of the local department were in action in the three-hour battle which succeeded in saving the main building.

The fire was believed to have started from an overheated stove pipe. David Meyers, who is a grandson of the original owner,

Hartmanns Exclusive Dealer

THE appointment of Ray Hartman & Sons, RD 3, East Stroudsburg, as an exclusive dealer for the new Brady "Queen-B" portable farm heater has been announced by J. F. Harbison, Sales Manager of Brady Mfg. Corp., Des Moines, Iowa.

The Brady "Queen-B" (Model Q-B 12) heater gives low cost circulating heat immediately and is ideal for heating farrowing houses, machine sheds, and all farm buildings. May be used for pre-heating engines, thawing frozen pipes, troughs and tanks and to prevent stored crops from freezing during a sudden drop in temperature.

An extremely mobile heater, the "Queen-B" is mounted on extra large wheels for ease of handling and transporting. A full 6 gallon fuel tank provides a minimum operation of 12 continuous hours. Use of optional thermostat greatly increases hours of operation.

The years-ahead achievements of Chrysler engineering make this warranty possible. You could pay four times as much for a car and it wouldn't be warranted for as long as a new low-price 1963 Plymouth or Valiant! What's covered? The internal parts of the engine, transmission and drive train—the "heart" of the car that would cost you plenty to replace or repair on any other car. As a Plymouth or Valiant owner, you can relax; peace of mind is standard equipment. If the warranty is still in effect when you sell the car, it's transferable to the new owner. Make plans now to see your Plymouth-Valiant Dealer. He's ready to answer any questions, and to offer a test drive that may well be one of your most exciting experiences in years!

Sees GW As 'Surprise' Team In SC

UNIVERSITY of Richmond Coach Ed Merrick sees George Washington, the Spiders' foe tonight in the District of Columbia Stadium as "the Southern Conference's surprise team."

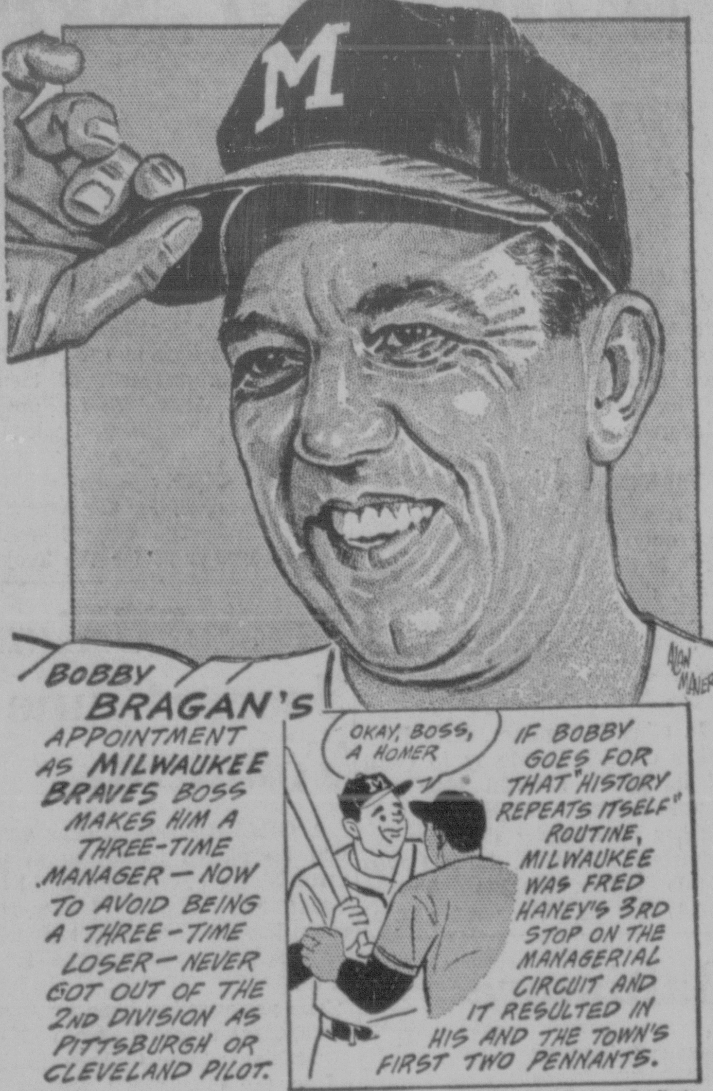

"We knew they would be tough," the Spider mentor points out, "but they've come along better than expected. They have a good passing attack, good receivers, two fine halfbacks in Dick Drummond and Bill Pasche, good punting and are real tough on defense."

The Colonials, who will be celebrating Homecoming, are anxious to avenge a 16-15 defeat at the hands of UR last year. The series, which started in 1897, stands 8-8-0.

Richmond, an early season disappointment, has improved rapidly and upset Boston University, 14-7, and Cincinnati, 21-20, in its last two games to even its record at 3-3. Halfback Norris Aldridge, who suffered an ankle injury, was the only serious casualty of the game with UC.

FIVE Yankees hit 20 or more home runs this season. Roger Maris had 33, Mickey Mantle 30, Moose Skowron 23, Ellie Howard 21 and rookie Tom Tresh 20.

Mr. Pigskin Predicts

Sees Wins For Warriors, Mountaineers, Cavaliers

By MR. PIGSKIN
Daily Record Forecaster

AS THE SUN sinks slowly in the west, your football crystal-ball gazer slowly sinks lower in the picking department.

It's that time of the year when the poor get better and the good get poorer. Except for exceptions, the trend leans toward the early season high-flying elevens losing momentum as the campaign nears the final whistle.

Last week we tabbed 13 right and had five wrong. This dropped the season's percentage to .747 via 88-right, 30-wrong, and four ties.

Here's how it looks for this weekend:

EAST STROUDSBURG STATE COLLEGE over Cortland Teachers — Pessimistic Jack Gregory might be humming out loud that he will be unable to pick up a first down the next two games. But we know the Warriors themselves are thinking constantly of that undefeated season. Cortland will feel the wrath of the College Hill eleven this weekend.

EAST STROUDSBURG HIGH over Port Jervis (N.Y.) High — The Cavaliers won't be finding any soft touch in the New Yorkers this year. In fact press releases from above the border see Port's team taking the measure of Eastburg this weekend. However, we expect the Cavaliers to shake their non-scoring drought and return to the play that marked them a better-than-average eleven earlier in the season.

STROUD UNION HIGH over Slatinton — Jerry Stulgaitis knows that the blocking and tackling of the Mountaineers cannot get any worse than it was last week against Catty. And, Slatinton is far from the class of the Rough Riders. So, Stroud Union should chalk up its second win of the year.

HELLERTOWN HIGH over Pen Argyl — The Panthers have a firm hold on first in the Lehigh-Northampton League. They don't intend to let the Green Knights throw a monkey wrench in their chances for the loop crown. But you always have to consider the phenomenal touchdown potential of Gary Heard and Bob Engler. This could be close if both boys play all the way.

PAMERTON HIGH over Bangor — The loss of head football Coach Dick Forster puts a sad cloud over the Slaters' squad. Anything Bangor does successfully from here on out has to be classified remarkable.

PIUS X HIGH over St. Michael's of Hoban Heights — Since Shemanski's Royals need a win in the next three games to reach 400 season. This should be the first obstacle.

WILSON HIGH over Parkland — The Warriors have come along fast since the season opened. And they still have an outside chance for the Lehigh-Northampton League title.

NORTHAMPTON HIGH over Nazareth — It appears the Konkrete Kids are picking up the same old victory smell again. One defeat was just too much for Al Erdosy to stomach.

WHITEHALL HIGH over Coplay — The Zephyrs are not great. And neither are the Wildcats!

LEHIGHTON HIGH over Catawauqua — The Indians can't lose three in a row. OR Can They???

EASTON HIGH over William Allen — This is a touch-and-go situation. Only reason we give the nod to the Rovers is because the game is being played in Easton.

BETHLEHEM HIGH over Phillipsburg (N.J.) — They get tougher to predict with each succeeding game.

ALLENTOWN CENTRAL CATHOLIC over Notre Dame — Why? We honestly cannot tell you.

ALLENTOWN DIERUFF HIGH over Governor Mifflin — Round and round she goes, wherever she stops nobody knows.

COLLEGIATE CONTESTS
COLGATE UNIVERSITY over Lehigh; MUHLENBERG COLLEGE over Kings Point; RUTGERS UNIVERSITY over Lafayette; and MORAVIAN COLLEGE over Upsala.

MIS-STATEMENT BY THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

On September 24, on a Philadelphia television show, he stated that neither he nor his family has been in the coal business since the 1880s.

FACT: Why should he be so ashamed of the coal business? Why did he omit mention of his connections with the coal industry in his Congressional biography? His father was a major factor in the formation of the Glen Alden Coal Company and the Hudson Coal Company. Scranton himself was on the Board of Directors of the Glen Alden Company from 1953 to 1958. This company, during that time, mined out from under the City of Scranton, 121,321 tons of coal at a profit of $303,303,400.

'Top Talent' For Our Side

NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Omar (Bud) Browning is high on the U.S. All-Stars who will meet the touring National Russian team in a series of eight basketball games starting at Madison Square Garden Nov. 3.

"I think we have the finest amateur talent in the United States working out here," Browning advised AAU headquarters in New York Thursday.

Tough To Cut

"Our toughest job will be to cut the 16-man squad to 12," said Browning, who is sending the squad through its paces at Bartlesville, Okla.

"Seven of the 10 players picked on the 1962 All-America AAU team are trying out for the 12-man squad, including Gary Thompson of the Phillips 66ers, most valuable player in this year's AAU tournament," said Browning.

Browning, head coach of the victorious U.S. Olympic team in 1948, was selected to coach the All-Star team because his Phillips team won the 1962 AAU championship. The 16-man squad includes five members of that team and two others who will play with Phillips this season.

BOBBY Richardson of the Yankees had hit in eight straight World Series games until stopped by Jack Sanford of the Giants in the second game of the 1962 classic.

Thompson, a 5-foot-10 playmaker out of Iowa State University, is the smallest player on the squad which averages 6-4½. The 12-man Russian team averages 6-6.

The three U.S. centers are Lloyd Sharrar (6-10), formerly of West Virginia, Mike Moran (6-9) of Marquette and Harold Hudgens (6-10) of Texas Tech. Moran played for the Denver Truckers and Sharrar for the Akron Good-years.

The Russians, due to arrive in New York Monday, also are bringing over their national women's team, winners of the European championship.

Features Doubleheaders

Doubleheaders involving the men's and women's teams will be featured at each of the eight stops.

The schedule and opposition for the Russians:

Nov. 8, New York, U.S. All-Stars and Nashville Business College; Nov. 10, Cole Field House, U. of Maryland, U.S. All-Stars and Nashville Business College; Nov. 12, Nashville, Tenn., U.S. All-Stars and Nashville Business College; Nov. 16, Sioux Falls, S.D., NAIA All-Stars and Iowa Wesleyan; Nov. 19, Mount Pleasant, Iowa NAIA All-Stars and Iowa Wesleyan; Nov. 21, Lubbock, Tex., U.S. All-Stars and Wayland Baptist College; Nov. 23 and 25, Denver, U.S. All-Stars and Wayland Baptist College.

No Rest For Pass Defense

UNIVERSITY PARK — There'll be no rest for Penn State's weary pass defenders this week.

Maryland comes to town, and in quarterback Dick Shiner the Terps boast a passer who ranks first in the nation with 87 completions in 131 attempts for 1,034 yards.

Shiner will be the third straight passing whiz to face the Lions. Two weeks ago Syracuse's Wally Mahle gave them fits and last Saturday California's Craig Morton rattled the State secondary for 20 completions, 274 yards and three touchdowns in 23 attempts. Penn State won both games, but no thanks to the pass defense.

Scout Sever Toretti calls Shiner a "superb" quarterback. "Unless our pass defense is the best it has ever been we won't stop him," warns Toretti, "and if we don't stop him we won't beat Maryland."

In addition to his passing ability, Shiner is an excellent fader and an adequate runner. Toretti said, "He has outstanding receivers in end Mike Funk and halfback Tom Brown. Brown has great speed, all the moves and is a fine runner when he catches the ball."

It's this that scares coach Rip Engle as much as anything, because the tackling in State's secondary was sloppy against Syracuse and California. Receivers were getting too much yardage after the completions.

Football Fatalities 28 Per Cent Lower

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Football fatalities at midseason this year are 28 per cent below the 1961 figure at the same halfway mark.

This was the score Thursday from Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood of Los Angeles State College, chairman of the surveying committee of the American Football Coaches Association.

10 Less

Where 35 players died from either direct or indirect causes at this juncture a year ago, 25 have succumbed thus far this fall, Dr. Eastwood reported.

Of the 25 this year, 16 were attributed to injuries suffered directly in football and nine from indirect causes.

The survey said that of the 16 direct deaths, 11 were in high school and five in sandlot competition.

College and semi-pro teams have had no direct deaths so far in 1962.

Heat Exhaustion

Of the nine indirect deaths, three were in college, one in sandlot and five in high school competition. The college indirect deaths included two from apparent heat exhaustion in Texas.

Dr. Eastwood said that, as has been the case in all past reports, injuries to the brain have accounted for the greatest number of fatalities. Thirteen of the 16 direct football deaths were caused by such injuries, with two others being caused by neck and spine injuries and one from a ruptured spleen.

The survey, Dr. Eastwood pointed out, is compiled on news accounts and questionnaires sent to both coaches and acting physicians.

The coaches association and the National Collegiate Athletic Association have constantly pushed for improvement and research, especially in the field of head protection, Dr. Eastwood continued.

"If complete physical examinations were administered to all prospective players over the past 11 years, 22 per cent of the deaths due to heart failure could have been prevented," Dr. Eastwood said.

Proper training and equipment are most important in preventing serious injury as well as death, and some form of physical check-up before each game "would give still further protection," he concluded.

Langhorne Championship Race Is Set For Sunday

LANGHORNE — Langhorne Speedway's 1962 Fall Championship Drag Race meet will be presented Sunday on its macadam dragstrip.

An innovation in grand prize awards at Langhorne, will be the awarding of U. S. Savings Bonds in up to $100 denominations to the outstanding performers in both stock and modified classes. Sunday, Nov. 11, is reserved as the championship rain date, if needed, and the 1962 season will close with the Sunday, Nov. 18 program.

The largest and fastest field of the year is expected to compete in stock, gas coupe and sedan, and dragster classes with 42 class winners and six overall categories to be determined.

With standard time operation in effect, registration of cars and drivers will run from 9:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.

Time trials will be conducted from 12 noon until 1:45 p. m. and the round robin competition will start promptly at 2 p. m.

Carmichael Is 'Mighty Mite'

MONTCLAIR, N. J.—Pete Carmichael may be only five foot six inches tall, but the Montclair State College quarterback is definitely "Big Man On Campus" when it comes to running the Indians' power-packed offense this year.

The mighty mite from North Plainfield, who weighs only 165 pounds soaking wet, has won the signal-calling job this year after losing out as a sophomore last fall.

Carmichael got the starting nod last season from Coach Gerry Edwards and opened at quarterback in the first three games. Extremely anxious to prove himself, Carmichael did not perform at his best and was forced to share the quarterbacking job with senior George Jeck for the last five contests.

Vital Key
Jeck departed last June via graduation and Carmichael has come into his own this season. Edwards, who has put Montclair on the collegiate football map in the last three years, points out that Carmichael's trusty right arm has been a very vital key in the Indians' success this year.

In the first five games, Carmichael has completed 28 passes in 59 attempts for a lofty percentage of 47.5. Three of Pete's tosses have resulted in Montclair touchdowns.

"While these figures are mighty impressive, what pleases me most as a coach is the fact that only two of Carmichael's aeriels have been intercepted by the opposition," Edwards says with pride.

In the matter of total offense, Carmichael trails only fullback Dom Deo in yards gained, 378 to 326. Deo has gained his total on 105 plays to Carmichael's 78.

The youngest of five children, Pete played his high school football at North Plainfield High under Coach Dick Schneider. A regular as a senior, Carmichael led the Canucks to a 7-1-1 mark and a tie for Central New Jersey Group II title with Highland Park.

Carmichael first went to college at the University of Dayton in the fall of 1959. He left Dayton after the first semester and entered Montclair in 1960.

A job kept Pete from football

during his freshman year but the year's absence did not seem to bother Carmichael last year when he made his first bid for a starting berth.

The Montclair quarterback's biggest problem has been to adjust to the Indians' system of attack which is slightly different than the one he played under in high school.

Carmichael also had to get used to the fact that under Edwards, Montclair does not throw as much as his high school team.

Pete's size does not bother him at all while playing. "I have gotten used to see those 240 and 250 pounders roaring in with fire in their eyes," Carmichael said when questioned about the occupational hazard of all passers, the red dogging linemen and linebackers.

Carmichael's great agility and speed afoot makes him mighty tough to bring down. "They may be a lot bigger than me, but they have to catch me first," is the way Pete sums up his feeling about opposition tacklers.

Who Will Be Best Filly?

CHERRY HILL, N.J. — All along the eastern seaboard members of "horsey set," racing division, are trying to figure out what 2-year-old filly will be named queen of her group when the annual national laurels are handed out at the end of the year.

It's no secret that the honor is usually bestowed upon the winner of The Gardenia, raced each year at Garden State Park the latter part of October. As a matter of fact, for the past five years running The Gardenia victress was elected "2-year-old filly of the year."

Greyhounds Impressive On The Road

BETHLEHEM — It's hard explaining to a Moravian "stay-at-home" fan just what makes the Greyhounds tick this year.

The Hounds opened at home and dumped Wilkes, 16-6, shaking pre-season jitters in doing so. The other Bethlehem encounter — a 30-8 drubbing by Lebanon Valley — saw few cheers emanating from the North Campus field.

But put the Greyhounds on a bus (no pun intended), ship 'em off to far-flung wars, and the excitement begins.

Best On Road
Coach Rocco Calvo agrees that his men have shown their best on the opponent's field. It was proven again Saturday at Reading, a 16-13 last-minute thriller over Albright.

And this weekend, once again, the Blue and Grey will be on the road, visiting the Vikings of Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., a team that last year went down at the hands of Moravian, 20-14. The Greyhounds Saturday will be seeking their fifth win.

Injuries Mount
Calvo is still plagued with injuries to key men. Albright's victory was costly, too. Fullback Dick Ritter (Trenton) and end Pat Mazza (Easton) never did make the trip home Saturday. Both were hospitalized for observation with head injuries. They returned home Tuesday. End Steve Check of Bethlehem — sidelined the last two weeks with a knee injury — is doubtful of seeing action this Saturday.

Bob Havlicsek, Phillipsburg speedster, is just coming around from a serious ankle problem, while fullback Bill Hino is nursing shoulder and ankle injuries.

Only One Win
The Greyhounds will be facing a T-formation attack by an Upsala squad that has suffered defeats by Western Maryland, Susquehanna, Kings Point and Wagner. Its only victory has been over Hofstra.

Quarterback Andy Semmel continues to lead the Greyhound offensive attack in both rushing and passing. The Lehigh, Pa., junior has ground out 536 yards in five games, 247 yards in 70 carries on the ground and 289 yards through the air. He leads in individual scoring with four touchdowns for 24 points.

Jim Kelyman, senior speedster from Manville, N.J., is next in scoring with three touchdowns and 18 points. Vince Seaman, former Bethlehem High griddier, booted his third field goal Saturday and his sixth PAT. He is third in scoring with 17 points, including a two-point pass completion.

Star Receiver
On the pass-catching ledger, Pat Mazza, who suffered his injury Saturday coming down with a Semmel grab in the first half, completions with nine for 97 yards. Sophomore Paul Riccardi of West Lawn, Steve Check's replacement and this week's ECAC honorable mention lineman, has seven completions for 86 yards.

Last Saturday's Semmel-to-Frank Grablachoff combination in the waning moments of the Albright game has moved the junior halfback from Rahway, N.J., into the No. 3 spot with six passes caught for 122 yards.

Bowling Highlights
East Stroudsburg Church League
RAY Pensyl, league patriarch, who seems to ripen with the years, belted a 208-592 to lead his Methodists to a four-pointer in a tight contest with the Lutherans, as Howard Smith's 208-209-580 fell short.

The streaking Non-Denominational quint scored its second second straight shutout over Salvation Army behind Capt. Paul Meixner's steady 503.

Tying the last game, the league leading Presbyterians eked out a 12-11½ win over St. Matthew's as Nelson Cramer's 523 was better backed than Pete Murphy's 201-533.

THE New York Yankees led American League teams in hitting last season with a .267 mark. Kansas City was second with .263.

renewal of The Gardenia was staged in front of some 25,000 people, and nary a one of 'em will tell you today that the winner, Fred W. Hooper's Main Swap, was the best filly in the race. They believe that the second horse, Mrs. Russell Reineman's Smart Deb, was best.

But how do you give a filly national championship honors for finishing second?

The experts argue thusly: "Smart Deb would have won The Gardenia by eight or 10 lengths if she had run straight through the stretch, instead of zinging out on the final turn to almost the outside fence — she must of lost at least eight lengths and only got beat a half-length on the money."

"Wing-Dings"
They could be right — probably are, but the 2-year-old daughter of Dedicate, from the mare Demree by Revoked, has now thrown three "wing-dings" in combat. All three of those occasions have cost her a victory.

The first time Smart Deb showed her frantic antics in a race came just out of the gate during the running of the Astarita Stakes at Aqueduct Sept. 26. She won the race by nearly two lengths, but had bothered at least four horses so badly that she was disqualified and placed last. Main Swap, by the way, finished second that afternoon and the disqualification gave the Swaps filly her first added-money victory.

Stops Dead
Then just last Oct. 19 at Garden State, in The Gardenia Trial, Smart Deb was coasting to an apparent easy win when she twice tried to stop dead in the stretch. She wound up being beaten two lengths by the lightly regarded Wise Nurse. Then came last Saturday's Gardenia.

Rising to the occasion with the best solution to the filly-tile picture recently was Smart Deb's trainer, Arnold Winick. "We're convinced Smart Deb is the best filly in America, and that her afternoon exhibitions of late are either 'passing fancy' or coincidence. We're thinking very seriously now of starting Smart Deb against the colts in The Garden State on Nov. 10."

Daring Try
For the record, not even great fillies of the past won The Gardenia — fillies like Bowl of Flowers and Cicada — had the temerity to challenge colts in The Garden State. And for the Reinemans to try their juvenile startlet in the Nov. 10 classic is even more daring. They'll have to post a $10,000 supplementary nomination fee.

One thing is certain, though. If Smart Deb does tackle the likes of Never Bend, Delta Judge, In The Pocket, et al, in The Garden State, and runs with authority and without acrobatics, she'll salt away "2-year-old filly of the year" honors in any and all polls with ease.

'Rocket' Rolling Again

UNIVERSITY PARK — Roger the Rocket is rolling again. Hampered throughout the first half of the season because of nagging injuries and stacked enemy defenses, Penn State's Roger Kochman finally exploded last Saturday against California, ripping off 130 yards in 19 carries for a 6.5 average. That was the best rushing performance by a Lion back since Lenny Moore was running wild in the mid-50's.

Moves Up
Kochman's performance against the Golden Bears moved him up among the national rushing leaders and put him in first place in just about every statistical department for Penn State.

He leads the Lions in rushing with 418 yards and a 5.3 average, in scoring with six touchdowns, in kickoff returns with seven for 147 yards, and is second to Junior Powell in pass receptions with 11 for 198 yards and three touchdowns.

"We figured that Kochman was about to explode for a big day," coach Rip Engle explained, "because we could see it coming a week earlier in our victory over Syracuse. He scored twice in that game on a run of 32 yards and on a 32-yard pass play and was moving and cutting like the Kochman of old."

Excellent Performer
"Actually, he has been an excellent performer right along despite the fact that he wasn't able to come up with that big rushing performance until last week," Engle explains. "He was doing all the little things that are the difference between winning and losing, the difference between a great back and an ordinary back — like blocking, playing good defense, running fine pass patterns, and getting the tough yardage on key plays. He's a fine all-around halfback and a real workhorse."

Workhorse is right. Kochman has carried the ball 79 times, 32 times more than the No. 2 man, and most of those times with leg and foot injuries that might have sidelined a lesser competitor.

Planning, Zoning Draws Industry

(Editor's Note: This is the last of three articles presented by the East Stroudsburg Planning Commission designed to inform the interested citizen of some of the more important features of the proposed zoning ordinance for the Borough of East Stroudsburg.)

Q — What is the relationship between industry and zoning?

A — One of the first facts a prospective industrial applicant wants to know is whether the community has a zoning ordinance and whether the community has a plan to insure the company's real estate investment and

Area Charge To Take Part In Challenge

NEWFOUNDLAND — South Sterling Charge will participate in the four-day Methodist Challenge For Christ preaching services at the Moscow Methodist Church from November 4 to 8. The speaker at the services will be the Rev. Bland Dewiler, of Pleasantville, New Jersey.

Ushering on November 4 will be Robert Krieger and Albert Oberly, of the Hemlock Grove Church; Everett Snow and Arthur Frey, of the South Sterling Church; and Robert Osborne and Douglas Smith, of the LaAnna Church.

On November 5, the Rev. James Jeffers, minister of the local charge, will participate in the service. On Thursday, November 8, a united choir of the Hemlock Grove and South Sterling Churches will sing.

Clark Rips Into Van Zandt

MILLERSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark said Thursday his Republican opponent consistently has opposed national trade expansion legislation under four presidents.

"This," he asserted, "demonstrates clearly the parochial, 19th Century viewpoint" of Rep. James E. Van Zandt.

"Unlike my opponent," Clark said in a speech at Millersville State College, "I have supported sound reciprocal trade laws with appropriate safeguards under both administrations, which have held office since I came to Washington. He has opposed every major trade bill under the last four presidents."

"Pennsylvania has an enormous and unique stake in international trade expansion. With our superb port facilities at both ends of the Commonwealth, we have been getting an ever-increasing share of the world's shipping trade."

"Doesn't the congressman from Altoona know that trade expansion means more jobs for Pennsylvania?"

the home investments of its personnel.

Competition for industry is keen today and is expected to become more intense in the near future. The community without a plan for orderly growth will be bypassed where industrial expansion is concerned.

Q — Are any civic organizations interested in zoning?

A — The East Stroudsburg Exchange Club, East Stroudsburg Businessmen's Assn., Rotary, Kiwanis, American Assn. of University Women, Business and Professional Women's Club, League of Women Voters and Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce have all urged adoption of zoning ordinances on local and county-wide levels.

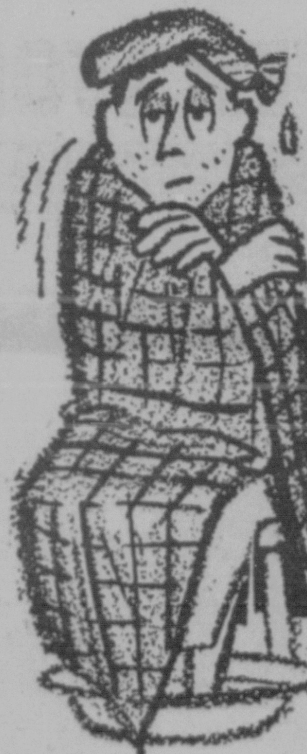

Q — How can East Stroudsburg get a zoning ordinance?

A — On Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the East Stroudsburg Area Joint High School cafeteria, the East Stroudsburg Planning Commission invites all interested citizens to attend a public hearing on the proposed zoning ordinance. Copies of the proposed zoning ordinance are available for study at the East Stroudsburg borough manager's office.

You can give East Stroudsburg a zoning ordinance by supporting the East Stroudsburg Planning Commission at the public hearing and letting your councilman know that you are in favor of zoning.

'Firefly' Satellite Will Study Earth

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A "Firefly" satellite with four blinking beacons whined in orbit yesterday to take the earth's measurements—where it bulges, dips, the center of gravity and distances between far-apart places.

The unique satellite, officially named Anna, could produce more accurate maps of our world and gather vitally needed information for tracking future American astronauts to the moon and back. Militarily, Anna could more precisely pinpoint location of possible enemy targets for long-range missiles, but officials considered that a secondary role.

A two-stage Thor-Able-Star rocket rifled into the darkness to propel the 355-pound sphere into a nearly perfect circular orbit about 735 miles above the earth.

Because the rocket was aimed on a northeast heading which carried the satellite over the Soviet Union, the Defense Department announced launching time in advance so that Soviet missile trackers would not mistake Anna for a hostile weapon.

A project spokesman reported all systems in the satellite were functioning perfectly. He said trackers will follow the payload for three days to determine exact orbital path before starting to exercise the flashing lights sometime Saturday night.

Although packing the illuminating power of a lighthouse, the flashes would be so far away they would not be visible to the naked eye. But officials said anyone with binoculars should be able to spot them as dim stars in the night sky. The Defense Department is expected to announce light activation times in advance.

Mission Defined

Scientists at the Applied Physics Laboratory, Johns Hopkins University, will determine when the lights should wink and will send radio commands from a station in Howard County, Md.

The beacons, which give the satellite its Firefly nickname, are four high-intensity xenon gas lights. The official Anna tag is an acronym for Army, Navy, National Aeronautics and Space Administration and Air Force, the participating agencies.

The flashes photographed against a background of known stars from a number of angles and strength of its gravitational field with an accuracy never before possible.

"FAMILY NIGHT" was enjoyed by cub scouts, parents and guests of Cub Scout Pack 84 on Saturday evening, October 27th at Hamilton Elementary school. Mitchell Hawk from Den No. 5 was awarded his "den chief's cord." Scoutmaster Charles Jenkins and boys from his troop entertained the group with slides, which had been taken on their various outings and trips. After the Halloween games, refreshments of cider and homemade doughnuts were served.

Cub Scouts of Dens 1 and 5 from Cherry Valley Pack No. 84 were entertained at a costume party Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Faulstick. In addition to the cubs and den mothers, Roger Hawk and Barry Lohman, future cubs attended. Instead of their regular dues, each boy paid a penny for each inch of his waist measurement. Mrs. Faulstick was assisted as hostess by den mothers, Gloria Altomese and Gladys McCabe.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Friday, November 2

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — One of your top priorities for the week ahead is to settle down to a more serious study of the future. But don't let this be a burden. It should be a pleasure to look ahead and plan for the future.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Hold off in those areas which ask more investigation, but step up your schedule once you have the data, so as not to lose time. Financial pursuits highly favored.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Do not be afraid to ask for assistance or information. The more heads, the more knowledge. You will be asked to help others, but you CAN meet it.

June 22 to July 22 (Cancer) — Devote your attention to completing small tasks, rather than attempting large ones. Undertaking a good day for advancing in business.

July 23 to August 22 (Leo) — Excellent Sun configuration. Your intuition, foresight and reflexes should be at a peak now, but remember that contact and good management will help improve.

August 23 to September 22 (Virgo) — Tolerance and discretion must accompany all decisions and action now. Emphasizing these traits, you can sail full steam, with merit and new prizes in the making.

September 23 to October 22 (Libra) — Considering all the opportunities about you, surely should be putting forth your talents and your edge in proficiency and strategy. Aim HIGH.

October 23 to November 22 (Scorpio) — There is more to this day than meets the eye. First so dig deep for those treasures, and believe that you will succeed. Just pride is warranted. Do not overlook safe marks.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — If you make a wrong turn, quickly reverse, and do not hesitate to ask directions. But know the source of such information. The familiar may not be the most gainful now. Fact.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn) — Avoid discouragement. Stress confidence, self-reliance, and display your veteran stability.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — If you don't try to do a square peg into a round hole you will find the day satisfying. Give your versatility and personality an even chance. You will surprise yourself.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) — Mental development, handling shipping, minerals, unusual matters can move forward. Personality as can daily routine if you keep it in order. Ship extremes.

YOUR DREAM TODAY: Here is tremendous energy, stamina and a desire for both achievement and improving everyone's lot. You may tend to overdo, overwork, thus give an enormous picture of your true self. Scorpio is not satisfied with mediocre places or ideas, yet is no quitter. You are practical, have friends from all classes, but you do aim to increase advantages.

Keep this healthy trend up. Have recourse to music and of the arts and outdoor exercise to protect the health, maintain balance. Birthdate: Daniel Boone, American frontiersman; James K. Polk and Warren G. Harding, U.S.A. Presidents.

Employment Declines In State

TOTAL unemployment in Pennsylvania declined slightly in October, Secretary of Labor and Industry A. Allen Sulcove announced today.

A drop of 1,000 from the preceding month lowered the total number of jobless workers to 318,000 in mid-October, but left the rate of unemployment at the September level of 6.9 percent. The volume of unemployment was at its lowest level in the past five years. Not since October 1957 has it been below this level. At that time there were 273,000 unemployed, representing 5.8 percent of the civilian work force.

Explaining the reduction, Sulcove said, "in addition to seasonal hiring in retail stores and educational institutions, there were other employment gains in shoe factories and transportation equipment plants."

"These pluses, however, were offset by temporary layoffs in steel mills and seasonal job losses in the construction and service industries," he added.

Secretary Sulcove noted that the current month's total represented a continuation of the downward trend in unemployment since the depth of the most recent recession, February 1961. At that time unemployment totaled 544,000 or 11.7 percent of the civilian work force. A year ago in October 1961 unemployment amounted to 355,000 or 7.6 percent of the civilian work force.

REMOVE WAX

ALL wax must be completely removed from floors before they are revarnished or the new coating will not adhere, the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association reminds. Use a proprietary wax remover or mineral spirits. If you use the latter, be sure there is adequate ventilation and don't smoke.

STATELY BI-LEVEL: This attractive home contains three or four bedrooms and three full baths, but two additional rooms easily could be pressed into service without encroaching on the daytime space a large family needs. Iron rails at entry and along the decks provide accent for the brick veneer and horizontal wood siding.

The House Of The Week

Dramatic Rotunda Highlights

By JULES LOH

A LARGE rotunda forms the foyer of this bi-level home. Gracious and stately, but also efficient and functional, it provides a dramatic highlight for a house designed throughout for modern, comfortable living.

"The rotunda should prove a real boon to bi-level construction," said architect Samuel Paul who designed the house. "It provides a spacious traffic hub, allowing easy access to all parts of the house without the need to cross one room to get to another."

The circular area is eleven feet in diameter and therefore also serves as a sophisticated and elegant reception foyer. Its ceiling is a foot higher than the surrounding area, and the whole space is accented by an unusual and attractive lighting cove around the full perimeter of the rotunda.

The house itself was designed, as architect Paul expressed it, "for the family who needs more than three bedrooms but can't really afford it." Offered as design J-45 in the House of the Week series, this home provides as many as five, or even six, bedrooms.

Its upper floor, which is regarded as the basic house, contains 1,452 square feet of living area. The lower floor—raised out of the ordinary basement position in order to give it light, ventilation and livability—contains 1,551 square feet including the garage. The deck outside the master bedroom adds another 117 square feet, and the rear dining porch 97 square feet.

Overall dimension are a modest 54 foot wide by 31 foot deep, which means this unusual amount of usable space, a total of 3,217 square feet, would fit comfortably on a 70 foot by 100 foot lot.

From the curb, the house has a pleasing contemporary look. Iron rails at the entry and along the decks, together with the raised panels in the window bays and on the doors, provide a certain provincial influence. Basic exterior materials are brick veneer and horizontal wood siding.

Additional Details

One reason bi-level design is so popular among large families is because it doesn't neglect the living space—the bathrooms, recreation area, large kitchen, storage space—required by families which need lots of sleeping room. Having room enough for everybody's bed is one thing; room for the same number to live comfortably during the waking hours is another.

This house provides for both in good measure. Ideally, it is a three-bedroom house with a fourth bedroom and private bath for guests or in-laws or a member of the family. But the lower level also contains two other versatile rooms—a hobby room and a study—which easily could serve as bedrooms without encroaching on the recreation and storage facilities.

Moreover, all these lower level rooms can be pressed into bedroom service as needed for family expansion, then revert to their prior functions when junior and sis get married and leave the premises. A more efficient long-term budgeting of space would be hard to imagine.

Half a flight down the wide main staircase from the mid level entry is another gracious foyer, this one semi-circular in shape, which likewise serves as a reception area and traffic circulator. Both the rotunda and the lower foyer make it unnecessary for the mid-level landing to serve as a foyer, a fault of many bi-levels.

In the rear of the house, an off-lier stair connects the informal areas of both levels and the rear patio. This stair eliminates the need to use the main foyer to get from one level to the other.

Notice the abundance of closet space—beginning in the entry foyer, and throughout the house. Architect Paul has provided more than enough storage room (if that's possible) for a large family.

A grand feature of the house is the master bedroom, with its private bath, walk-in closet and 117-square-foot lounging deck. The FLOOR PLANS: Upper floor contains 1,452 square feet of living area not counting 117-square-foot master bedroom deck and 97-square-foot dining deck.

REMOVE MILDEW

IT'S a waste of time to paint over mildew. The mold must be removed before you paint, and if these growths are common in your area, it's wise to use a mildew resistant paint. The National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association recommends removing the growth by washing it with a solution made as follows: one quart of household bleach, 3 ounces of a cleaner containing trisodium phosphate, one ounce of detergent and three quarts of warm water. Allow to stand for five minutes then rinse with clean water.
